

Edwin C. Jones, Jr.

Assistant Professor, 1966-67; Associate Professor, 1967-72;
Professor, 1972-95; University Professor, 1995-2001;
Associate Chair, 1997-2001

Edwin C. Jones, Jr., was known for his passion and leadership for improving engineering education. He earned a B.S. at West Virginia University, DIC at Imperial College (London), and Ph.D. at the University of Illinois, where he was an Assistant Professor before moving to ISU. He was heavily involved in ASEE, the IEEE Education Society, and ABET, and he was Director of Engineering Distance Education for over a decade. For 20 years, he was academic advisor for the ECE honors program, and some of those students established the Ed Jones Scholarship. He received the Linton E. Grinter Distinguished Service Award from ABET, the Meritorious Service Award from the IEEE Education Society, and the Accreditation Activities Award from IEEE Educational Activities Board. He was elected a Fellow of IEEE, ASEE, AAAS, and ABET.

2019
INAUGURAL CLASS